PLANNING YOUR FUTURE PARTY GAME

The career expo will also feature a Planning Your Future “Party Game” workshop for all participants who need the extra support to identify interests and careers that best fit with your personality. We will help you understand the education required and the financial earning potential of the careers that interest you most. The “party” will last 30 minutes and will be repeated several times during the career fair. You can sign up when you arrive or call now to reserve a spot.
