The Greater Virginia Peninsula Homelessness Consortium (GVPHC) is a regional body comprised of six separate political jurisdictions: Newport News, Hampton, Poquoson, Williamsburg, James City County, and York County.

This vigorous and collaborative entity is open to any and all agencies, programs, and individuals interested in working to prevent and end homelessness on the Virginia Peninsula.

Members receive weekly emails notifying membership of grant opportunities, fundraising events, new related reports, employment opportunities, program and agency news, links to useful information and tools, etc.

We welcome you to browse our website www.gvphc.org and hope you will join us in our work to prevent and end homelessness!

Please be sure to join our weekly mailing list! Contact Maddi Zingraff @ mzingraff@theplanningcouncil.org to add your email address to the GVPHC distribution list.

Make checks payable to: “GVPHC” - Greater Virginia Peninsula Homelessness Consortium. Mail payment to the address above. If you have questions concerning this invoice, contact Anita Taylor @ ataylor@shelterstoshutters.org.
