This Thursday, July 18, the Military Affairs Council of the Virginia Peninsula Chamber of Commerce is hosting a Military and Business job fair at the Newport News Marriott at City Center, 740 Town Center Drive. From 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. the fair is open to Active-Duty/Retired Military, Reservist, DOD civilians, dependents and veterans. Beginning at 11:00 a.m., the event opens to the general public.

Employers will be ready to hire on-site, job search assistance will be available for all, and there will be computers available for online applications. There will also be a variety of seminars offered throughout the day. Attend "How to Work for a Job Fair" at 8:15 a.m., "Federal Workshop" at 9:15 a.m. and "Employers Panel" at 10:30 a.m. Applicants are encouraged to dress for success. Hard copies of resumes are preferred. No children are permitted inside the event area.
